

Diana Pacini

Past Experience

Diana Pacini, an accomplished pianist, started playing piano at the age of four. Music has been her passion since childhood, and her profession for more than forty years. As a former student of Dennis Alexander, Diana was the winner of numerous piano awards, including the prestigious Preliminary Talent Award at the Miss America Pageant, and Billings Symphony Young Artist Competition. Diana has been the accompanist for Missoula Mendelssohn Club for more than twenty years, and has routinely played with the Missoula Symphony Orchestra and Chorale, University of Montana School of Music, MCPS (Concerts, Festivals), UM Pianissimo Benefit Concerts, 2000 UM Vienna Experience (accompanist and vocalist), Montana Lyric Opera Company, Dolce Canto and MCT Community Theater, MCT Children's Theater Productions and MCT Performing Arts Camps.

Education

Diana holds Bachelors and Masters degrees in music education from the University of Montana, and has taught piano and voice at all levels. She taught in the public school system, and currently runs her own piano and vocal studio in Missoula, and is co-founder and co-director of the nonprofit, The Arts Educate.

Lessons

Age of Students: 6 years of age to adult

Lesson Type: Private

Levels: Beginning to Early Advanced

Lesson Length: 30, 45 and 60 minute

Philosophy

"Teaching music is not my main purpose. I want to make good citizens. If a child hears fine music from the day of their birth and learns to play and sing it themselves, they develop sensitivity, discipline, and endurance. They get a beautiful heart." Shinichi Suzuki
